What a difference a year makes!

In FY 2017, TMCEC presented Fines, Fees, Costs, and Indigence at all the regional programs, asking whether we can better serve the interest of the poor while maintaining public safety, respecting equal protection of the law, and administering fairly? Do we need more laws or do we need to do a better job of enforcing the ones we have? The 85th Legislature's answer: H.B. 351 and S.B. 1913. This clinic will reexamine fines, fees, costs, and indigence in light of recent events and new laws regarding sentencing, community service, and enforcement. Designed for judges, prosecutors, and court support personnel.

Registration:

The cost to register is $20. Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided. Hotel rooms will not be provided. This clinic counts for four hours of judicial education credit, clerk certification credit, and for licensed attorneys, CLE credit (No TCOLE credit). There is no additional cost for CLE credit.
